

GINOP Plusz-3.2.1-21 Improving the adaptability and productivity of employees and companies through workforce development

Name of the beneficiary: HouseHold4You Kft.

Subject of the development: Improving the adaptability and productivity of employees and companies through workforce development

Amount of the contracted support: 118,989,400 HUF

Detailed presentation of the project content:

The aim of the priority project is to promote the training of their employees through the support provided to companies, thereby contributing to the improvement of their productivity and the development of employees' knowledge and competence. The training courses implemented at HouseHold4You Kft. within the framework of the training program are the following:

Household skill matrix course with digital focus

After the training, the student should be able to perform effective service work in locations with different conditions. He should be able to recognize service processes, know the most important terms and basic concepts related to them. Be able to cooperate and interpret work instructions and carry them out. Know the basic requirements for employment, the specifics of the workplace/environment of asset protection services.

Project completion date: 2026.12.28.

